

WHEATHILL PRIORY BENEFICE

“Jesus Lives: Follow Him”

Sunday 14 November 2021 Remembrance

Remembrance Sunday gives us the opportunity to remember and give thanks for those whose service ensured that we are able to live the way we do. It has also grown markedly over recent decades, we’ve gone from remembering on the Sunday to organisations stopping to mark the moment of armistice itself, and attendance at these events is growing. Some years ago there were concerns that as the generations who were alive during the two world wars died that so would the tradition.

Events of recent years, conflict and terror have conspired to ensure that does not happen, so on Thursday (11/11) Friday (12/11) and Sunday (14/11) we will stop, remember and give thanks. But maybe this week also reminds us to continue to pray for those who serve in the armed forces in this land. We saw the work some did in Afghanistan this summer, but of necessity much of what they do is out of the public eye, and often putting themselves in danger. So as we come we give thanks.

But this time also reminds us to pray for those we do not necessarily agree with be they our ‘enemies’ or a neighbour with whom we’ve had a disagreement. The bible reminds us to pray for our enemies, because once you start to pray for someone you also begin to care about them, and seeing them as people as we are in an important first step. Praying for them may also help us to see a way through the difficulty, or challenge. Looking for God’s way through the situation is an excellent first step.

Thirdly remembrance also causes us to be a thankful people, for the situation in which we live, our homes, families and food on the table. We see on our computer and television screens others in difficult situations many of which are caused or exasperated by war, so let us be thankful and live out the lives we are called to.
